Online Course Structure

This is a fully-online course. All course activities and resources can be found through our course website on Canvas. At designated times throughout the semester, we will participate in a blend of self-paced and group-paced activities using Canvas such as discussion forums, email, journaling, blogging, wikis, and web posting. All of the learning activities will be completed in your own time so long as they are completed by the dates and times shown in the course schedule.

Important Note: This syllabus, along with course assignments and due dates, are subject to change. It is the student's responsibility to check our course Canvas site for corrections or updates to the syllabus. Any changes will be clearly noted in course announcements.

Canvas Access & Technical Assistance

To access this course on Canvas you will need access to the Internet and a supported Web browser (Chrome, Firefox, and Safari are recommended). Visit the UF Help Desk for information about accessing Canvas and tips to help you get started.

Communication Policy

The best way to contact me is through:

Canvas messenger is reserved for current students, and I monitor it diligently and will get back to you quickly. I don't want you to get buried in my email inbox, I want my current students in my class to have the highest level of access to me and using that tool is the way to achieve that.]

Part 2: Student Learning Outcomes & Objectives

Student Learning Outcomes

By the end of this course students will be able to:

- Use Canvas
- Define the Universal Design for Learning Framework
- Explain the Universal Design for Learning Framework Principles
- Design and implement a course on Canvas that incorporates the Universal Design for Learning Framework

Course Objectives

- The course provides an opportunity to students to experiment with the Canvas page from the teacher's perspective and apply the Universal Design for Learning Framework into their course design, ultimately improving accessibility

- Students will design, develop, and implement a course page on Canvas that incorporates the Universal Design for Learning Framework

Part 3: Topic Outline/Schedule

Important Note: Refer to the course calendar for specific meeting dates and times. Activity and assignment details will be explained in detail within each week's corresponding learning module. If you have any questions, please contact your instructor.

Part 4: Grading Policy

Graded Course Activities

Weight	Description
5%	Attendance
45%	Formative Assessments
50%	Summative Assessments
100%	Total Points Possible

Late Work Policy

Limited Grace Period:

Students are allowed a 24 -hour grace period to submit late assignments without penalty. After 48 hours, a 20% deduction will be applied. No work will be accepted more than 5 days past the original deadline unless special permission has been granted in advance.

Viewing Grades in Canvas

Points you receive for graded activities will be posted to the Canvas GradeBook. Select Grades from the Course Administration menu at the top of the screen to view your points. You will see a visual indication of new grades posted on your Canvas home page under the link to this course.

Letter Grade Assignment

Final grades assigned for this course will be based on the percentage of total points earned and are assigned as follows:

Letter Grade	Percentage	Performance
A	90-100%	Excellent Work
B	80-89%	Good Work
C	70-79%	Average Work
D	60-69%	Poor Work
F	0-59%	Failing Work

Important note: For more information about grading at University of Florida, visit the academic policies and grading section of the university catalog.

Part 5: Course Policies

Participation

Students are expected to participate in all online activities as listed on the course calendar. Students may only participate in classes if they are registered officially or approved to audit with evidence of having paid audit fees. The Office of the University Registrar provides official class rolls to instructors.

Students are responsible for satisfying all academic objectives as defined by the instructor. Absences count from the first-class meeting.

Acceptable reasons for absence from or failure to engage in class include illness; Title IX-related situations; serious accidents or emergencies affecting the student, their roommates, or their family; special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, professional conferences); military obligation; severe weather conditions that prevent class participation; religious holidays; participation in official university activities (e.g., music performances, athletic competition, debate); and court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena). Other reasons (e.g., a job interview or club activity) may be deemed acceptable if approved by the instructor.

For all planned absences, a student in a situation that allows an excused absence from a class, or any required class activity must inform the instructor as early as possible prior to the class. For all unplanned absences because of accidents or emergency situations, students should contact their instructor as soon as conditions permit.

Students shall be permitted a reasonable amount of time to make up the material or activities covered during absence from class or inability to engage in class activities because of the reasons outlined above.

If a student does not participate in at least one of the first two class meetings of a course or laboratory in which they are registered, and they have not contacted the department to indicate their intent, the student can be dropped from the course. Students must not assume that they will be dropped, however. The department will notify students if they have been dropped from a course or laboratory.

The university recognizes the right of the instructor to make attendance mandatory and require documentation for absences (except for religious holidays), missed work, or inability to fully engage in class. After due warning, an instructor can prohibit further attendance and subsequently assign a failing grade for excessive absences.

Build Rapport

If you find that you have any trouble keeping up with assignments or other aspects of the course, make sure you let your instructor know as early as possible. As you will find, building rapport and effective relationships are key to becoming an effective professional. Make sure that you are proactive in informing your instructor when difficulties arise during the semester so that we can help you find a solution.

Complete Assignments

All assignments for this course will be submitted electronically through Canvas unless otherwise instructed. Assignments must be submitted by the given deadline or special permission must be requested from the instructor before the due date. Extensions will not be given beyond the next assignment except under extreme circumstances.

All discussion assignments must be completed by the assignment due date and time. Late or missing discussion assignments will lower your grade.

Understand When You May Drop This Course

It is the student's responsibility to understand when they need to consider disenrolling from a course. Refer to the UF Course Schedule for dates and deadlines for registration. After this period, a serious and compelling reason is required to drop from the course. Serious and compelling reasons include: (1) documented and significant change in work hours, leaving a student unable to attend class, or (2) documented and severe physical/mental illness/injury to the student or student's family.

Incomplete Policy

Under emergency/special circumstances, students may petition for an incomplete grade. An incomplete will only be assigned if documentation is provided.

Inform Your Instructor of Any Accommodations Needed

If you have a disability and would like to request accommodations, please contact the instructor during the first week of the semester so that your accommodations may be provided in a timely manner. Access Resource Center (ARC) provides assistance in determining and facilitating appropriate accommodations for students with verified disabilities. The ARC office is located on the first floor of the Student Services building (STS 115).

University of Florida's Academic Honesty Policy & Procedures

Academic honesty is a cornerstone of the educational community; therefore, students are expected to understand the standards of academic honesty as they pertain to students' behavior in the classroom.

Plagiarism

It is important for students to acknowledge sources that are used for completing classroom assignments. Plagiarism is a form of academic dishonesty.

Plagiarism may be any one of the following:

1. Verbatim copying without proper documentation of the source(s).
2. Paraphrasing without proper documentation of the source(s).
3. Unacknowledged appropriation of information or ideas from someone else.

If students have any questions about these forms of plagiarism or about an assignment they are preparing, they should ask their instructor for clarification rather than risk unintentional plagiarism.

Cheating

It is important for students to act in an honest and trustworthy manner. Work performed on examinations or other forms of evaluation must represent an individual's own work, knowledge and experience of the subject matter. Students are expected to follow the classroom rules established by the instructor.

Cheating may be any one of the following:

1. Unauthorized looking at or procuring information from any unauthorized sources or from another student's work during an examination or from any work that will be graded or given points.
2. Unauthorized acquiring, reading or learning of test questions prior to the testing date and time.
3. Changing any portion of a returned graded test or report and resubmitting it as an original work to be regraded.
4. Presenting the work of another as one's own for a grade or points.
5. Knowingly assisting another student in cheating.

This list is not all-inclusive and the list itself is not meant to limit the definition of cheating to just these items mentioned.

Consequences of Academic Dishonesty

The disciplinary action for cheating or plagiarism is up to the discretion of the instructor. The instructor may select one or more of the following options:

1. Issue an oral or written notification and warn the student that further acts of this sort will result in additional disciplinary action.
2. Issue an "NP" or a failing grade ("F") or "0" for the assignment in question.
3. Refer the student to the Vice President for Student Services for disciplinary action.
